OCTOBER 2023

The Fall Book Sale is Upon Us

This fall at our sale we will have a good variety of offerings. We will have a good collection of the following: Biography, History, Fiction, Mystery-Thriller, Medical, Business, Sports, Humor, Signed books, and Special editions, those books that have been issued in special editions, often signed and numbered such as Heritage Press and others. We also have some classic books. These are older books that have lasted, giving us a chance to view the world as it was then.

We need Volunteers! We need people to help with the sale set-up, and takedown. We also need people to work the sale and help out with our patrons.
